

PLAYERS' CODE OF BEHAVIOUR & ETHICS

In addition to the Club's General Code of Behaviour & Ethics, all Club member players are required to meet the following requirements in regard to their behaviour during any activity sanctioned by the Club, Ice Hockey Australia, its Member State Association or an Affiliated Club:

1. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of fellow players, coaches, officials and spectators;
2. Do not tolerate acts of aggression;
3. Respect the talent, potential and development of fellow players and competitors;
4. Care for and respect the equipment and environment provided to you as part of your program including maintaining a clean and tidy change room and bench area
5. Be frank and honest with your coach concerning illness and injury and your ability to train fully within the program requirements;
6. At all times avoid intimate relationships with your coach;
7. Conduct yourself in a professional manner relating to language, temper and punctuality;
8. Maintain high personal behaviour standards at all times;
9. Abide by the rules and respect the decision of the official, making all appeals through the formal process and respecting the final decision;
10. Be honest in your attitude and preparation to training. Work equally hard for yourself and your team;
11. Cooperate with coaches and staff in development of programs to adequately prepare you for competition at the highest level.
12. All members are expected to adhere to appropriate behavior and respect each other's privacy in change rooms, including but not limited to inappropriate mobile phone use
13. Players from the Brisbane United Ice Hockey League (BUIHL) and the Queensland Junior Ice Hockey League (QJIHL) shall not share the same change room facilities
